

MTLH7.mp4

[00:00:01] A very simple inexpensive way of helping to develop hand strength and pencil control can be something as simple as a plastic container with plasticine in it. Where the child can pull the pencil through the plasticine to make shapes, pre writing shapes, letter shapes, general just mark making. But it's good for helping to develop hand strength and dexterity.